Cookie policy

Our website, squire.eu, uses cookies to improve your browsing experience and to better understand how you use our website. This cookie policy explains what cookies are, how we use them, and how you can manage them.

Cookies

Cookies are small text files that are stored on your device by a website. They are used to remember your preferences and to enhance your experience while browsing a website.

Strictly Necessary Cookies

Our website uses strictly necessary cookies to provide you with essential services. These cookies are essential for the proper functioning of our website and cannot be turned off.

Performance Cookies

Our website uses performance cookies to collect information about how you use our website. These cookies help us to improve the functionality of our website and to understand which pages are the most popular.

Third-Party Cookies

Our website uses third-party cookies from Leadinfo to collect information about how you use our website. These cookies are used to improve the functionality of our website and to understand which pages are the most popular.

How can I manage cookies?

You can manage cookies by adjusting the settings in your web browser. Please note the cookie button on the left of your screen for this. You can choose to accept or reject all cookies or to be notified when a cookie is set. However, please note that if you choose to reject cookies, some functionality of our website may be lost.

Consent

By using our website, you consent to our use of cookies in accordance with this cookie policy.

Updates

We may update this cookie policy from time to time. We will notify you of any changes by posting the new cookie policy on our website. You are advised to review this cookie policy periodically for any changes.
